Dear Fraser: Subject: Future Assignment

This is in response to your letter of 10 December 1958, subject as above.

I was glad to hear your expression of preferences and would like to give you your first choice of the job of Chief 25X1A6a Editor, [redacted]. However, it appears unlikely, at this time, that we will be able to accommodate you in that position. Our tentative plans are to place you in charge of 25X1A8a the [redacted] but a firm decision will not be possible until about the time you are due to arrive in Headquarters.

I appreciate the excellent job which you have performed
25X1A6a in [redacted] under difficult conditions and will look forward to making further use of your experience and training during your upcoming tour in Headquarters.

Sincerely,

25X1A9a
